PROFILE SUMMARY

As an experienced Software Engineer, I specialize in architectural design, scalability, and distributed systems. My expertise in cloud computing, containerization, and CI/CD ensures efficient and reliable software delivery. I excel in API design and database management, emphasizing quality assurance in all projects. Proficient in JavaScript, Node.js, and Express.js, I craft robust server-side and front-end solutions. My AWS Cloud skills add value to cloud-based deployments. With a strong technical skill set and a passion for creating scalable and high-quality software, I'm well-equipped to drive success in complex software engineering projects.
